

Negative controls stay inside the random-feature null; GBA clears it but is bounded by carrier prevalence

Null band spans the 20 random-feature draws (-0.0115 to +0.0133). Brackets in the source file are cross-seed repeat ranges, not confidence intervals, and are not drawn. Arms differ in n because each control is scored on the largest set where it is defined.